AN ACT

For incorporating the Bank of Virginia.

[Passed 30th January, 1804.]

Section 1. BE it enacted by the General Assembly, That a Bank of Virginia shall be established at Richmond, the capital stock whereof shall not exceed one million five hundred thousand dollars, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; and the subscriptions towards constituting the said stock, shall on the first Monday in May next be opened at Richmond for three thousand seven hundred and fifty shares; at Norfolk for three thousand shares; at Petersburg for two thousand and two hundred and fifty shares; at Fredericksburg for fifteen hundred shares; at Winchester for five hundred and twenty five shares; at Staunton for four hundred and fifty shares; and at Lynchburg for five hundred and twenty five shares:—under the superintendence of Edward Carrington, Joseph Gallego, Robert Pollard, James Hatcher and James T. Leitch, at Richmond, of Littleton W. Tazewell, Thomas A. Parker, Richard Blow, George McIntosh, William Bennett, John E. Holt, Solomon Bedinger, Theodorick Armstead, and Richard E. Lee, at Norfolk, of Robert Birchett, Robert Colquhoun, Ebenezer Stoot, Archibald Thweatt, Paul Nash, John Bell and John Wilder, at Petersburg; of Robert Patton, George French, Stephen Winchester, Alexander Duncan, Thomas Goodwin, John Mundell and William S. Stone, at Fredericksburg; of Hugh Holmes, Edward Smith, Robert Mackey, Adam Douglass, William Davidson, John Ambler, Archibald McGill and John Milton, at Winchester; of John Wait, Alexander St. Clair, John Fackler, Samuel Blackburn, John Coalter, J. McDowell, Jacob Swoope and Jacob Kinney, at Staunton; of James Stepoe, William Brown, Thomas Higginbotham, Samuel Irvine, William Warwick, Joel Yancey, James Stuart, and Thomas S. McClelland, at Lynchburg; and a majority of the said commissioners, at the places above mentioned respectively, shall be sufficient to perform the duties of their appointment; and they shall keep the subscription open at least for the term of ten days, and if not completed at the expiration of that term, then they shall keep the same open until the number of shares at the places above mentioned respectively, shall be subscribed for, and no longer; but if the subscription shall be filled at any time before the expiration of the said term of ten days, then, and immediately after the same shall be filled, no person, or copartnership, or body politic, shall, during the remainder of the term aforesaid, be permitted to subscribe for more than two shares.

Section 2. And be it further enacted, That all the subscriptions and the shares obtained in consequence thereof, shall be deemed and held to be for the sole and exclusive use and benefit of the persons, copartnerships, or bodies politic, respectively subscribing, or in whose behalf the subscriptions respectively shall be declared to be made, at the time of making the same; and all bargains, contracts, promises and engagements in any wise contravening this provision, shall be void; and the persons, copartner-ships or bodies politic, respectively so subscribing, or for whose use the subscriptions shall be declared to be made as aforesaid, shall have, enjoy and receive the share or shares respectively, obtained in consequence thereof; and all the interest and emoluments thence arising, as freely, fully and absolutely, as if they had respectively paid the consideration thereof; any such bargains, contracts, promises or engagements to the contrary notwithstanding.—Provided however, That no subscription shall be received in Richmond, during the ten first days appointed for receiving the same, except in the name of some person or persons residing in the said city or in some part of the state, other than the cities and towns herein before mentioned, as places for opening subscriptions; and so with respect to Norfolk, Petersburg, Fredericksburg, Winchester, Staunton and Lynchburg: thereby rendering the inhabitants of all the said towns, unable for the first ten days to subscribe in any town, except that in which they may reside, or to have subscriptions made in their own names or for their use.

Section 3. And be it further enacted, That the subscribers to the said bank, their successors and assigns, shall be and are hereby created, and made a corporation and body politic in law and in fact, by the name and style of "The President, Directors & Company of the Bank of Virginia," and shall so continue until the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and no longer; and by the name and style aforesaid, they shall be, and are hereby made able and capable in law, to have, purchase, receive, possess, enjoy and retain, to themselves, and their successors, lands, rents, tenements, hereditaments, goods, chattels and effects, to an amount not exceeding in the whole three millions five hundred thousand dollars, including the amount of the capital stock aforesaid; and the same to sell, grant, demise, alien or dispose of; to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered, defend and be defended, in courts of record, or any other place whatsoever; and also to make, have and use a common seal, and the same to break, alter, and renew at their pleasure; and also to ordain, establish and put in execution such bye laws, ordinances and regulations, as shall seem necessary and convenient for the government of the said corporation; not being contrary to the laws of this state, or of the United States; and for the making whereof, general meetings of the stockholders may be called, summoned, and generally to do and execute all acts, matters and things, which a corporation or body politic, in law, may or can lawfully do and execute, subject to the rules, regulations, restrictions, limitations and provisions herein after prescribed and declared.

Section 4. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any person, copartnership, or body politic, in person or by attorney, to subscribe for a share or any number of shares not exceeding thirty, in any one day, except in the case before provided for; and except also, as shall be herein after directed relatively to the commonwealth of Virginia; but in case the amount of the subscriptions at any of the places before mentioned shall exceed the number of shares there allowed to be subscribed, the excess thus created, shall be reduced within the number of shares authorised to be subscribed at such places respectively, in manner following, that is to say; from the subscription and subscriptions highest in amount, the proper commissioners shall subtract a share or shares, until the same shall be made equal to the subscription or subscriptions next in amount; and as often as the case shall require, they shall so proceed to subtract a share or shares from the subscription or subscriptions remaining from time to time, highest in amount until the aggregate of all the subscriptions be reduced to the number of shares authorised to be subscribed at the places before mentioned, respectively, and if by and after the operation of such subtraction (as often as the same shall be necessarily made and repeated as aforesaid) a greater number of shares may be allowed to one or more of the subscribers than to the rest, or if the number of shares shall eventually be greater than the number of shares authorised at the places before mentioned, respectively, so that at least one share cannot be allowed to each and every subscriber, then, and in either of the before mentioned cases, the commissioners shall ascertain by lot, in whom the greater number of shares, or the right of subscribing for and retaining one share, (as the case may be) shall be vested; and the person and persons in whose favor the lot may thereupon fall, shall be deemed, to all intents and purposes, the lawful subscriber and subscribers for such share and shares respectively; and the amount of the share or shares subscribed for, (except in the case of the commonwealth) shall be paid by the several and respective subscribers in gold or silver—one fourth thereof at the time of subscribing; one fourth within sixty days after the bank shall go into operation; one fourth within one hundred and twenty days; and one fourth in six months, to the bank directors for the time being; Provided always, That it shall be lawful for any subscriber to pay the whole of his subscription money, or any greater part than is hereby required, before the time above limited for the payment of the same; and each and every subscriber so paying in advance, shall have a discount at the rate of six per centum per annum, on such advance.

Section 5. And be it further enacted, That for the well ordering of the affairs of the said corporation, there shall be fourteen Directors, being citizens of this state, elected yearly by the stockholders, at a general meeting to be held annually at Richmond, on the first Monday in January, for that purpose; in which election the Treasurer on behalf of the state shall have a vote or votes equal to the greatest number of votes which shall be given at the said election on any three thousand shares held by the greatest number of stockholders; and moreover, the treasurer of the state for the time being, shall be one ex officio. At the same time and place there shall be chosen, under the same rules and regulations, thirteen Directors for Norfolk; and the like number, in like manner shall be chosen for Petersburg; and also the like number, in like manner for Fredericksburg. And the directors at the several places aforesaid, at their first meeting after each election, shall choose one of their number as a President: Provided, That the first election of Directors shall not be included in the before mentioned general regulation; but shall be held at the time and in the manner herein after directed; And Provided, That in case it should at any time happen that an election of Directors should not be made upon any day, when pursuant to this act it ought to have been made, the said corporation shall not for that cause be deemed to be dissolved, but it shall be lawful on any other day, within ten days thereafter, to hold and make an election of Directors, in such manner as shall have been regulated by the laws and ordinances of the said corporation; and that in case of the death, resignation or absence from the state of a new choice for the remainder of the year, by a majority of Directors at the place where such vacancy shall happen: Provided, That every person voting for Directors at any election, shall previous to giving his vote make oath or solemnly affirm, that the share or shares in right whereof he offers to vote, is or are, really and bona fide his own property, and not held in trust or for the use, benefit, or emolument of any other person or persons, nor in pursuance of any contrivance or design to obtain for himself, or any other person or persons, a greater number of votes than he or they are fairly entitled to, according to his or their true interest in the bank, in conformity with the proportions of voting on shares as established by this act. And where any person offers to vote as a proxy, an affidavit to the same effect, of the person whom he represents, shall be sufficient:—To take any such oath or affirmation falsely shall be perjury.

Section 6. And be it further enacted, That on the first day of June next, and every thirty days thereafter, if the subscription shall not be sooner closed, the Commissioners appointed at Norfolk, Petersburg, Fredericksburg, Winchester, Staunton and Lynchburg, shall respectively transmit and deliver to the Commissioners appointed in and for the City of Richmond, a list of the several subscribers, at such places respectively, and of the share or shares to each and every subscriber belonging together with the full amount of subscription money by the Commissioners respectively received as aforesaid; for which amount the receipt in writing of the said Commissioners, appointed in and for the city of Richmond, or of a majority of them, shall be a sufficient acquittance and discharge to the persons respectively paying the same. And as soon as the sum of three hundred thousand dollars, in the manner aforesaid shall be actually received on account of the subscription to the said capital Stock of the said bank, notice thereof shall be given by the Commissioners appointed in and for the city of Richmond, or a majority of them, in at least two public gazettes, printed in the said city of Richmond; and the same persons shall at the same time, notify a time and place within the said city, at the distance of twenty days from the time of such notification, for proceeding to the choice of Directors; and it shall be lawful for such election to be then and there made; and the fourteen persons who shall then and there be chosen, together with the Treasurer for the time being, shall be the first directors, and shall be capable of serving until the first Monday in January thereafter, by virtue of such choice, or until their successors shall be duly elected; and the said directors shall forthwith, thereafter, commence the operations of the said Bank, at the city of Richmond.

Section 7. And be it further enacted, That the Directors for the time being shall have power to appoint such officers, clerks and servants under them, as shall be necessary for executing the business of the said corporation, and to allow them such compensation for their services respectively, as shall be reasonable; and shall be capable of exercising all such powers and authorities for the well governing of the affairs of the said corporation, as shall be prescribed by the laws, ordinances and regulations of the same.

Section 8. And be it further enacted, That the following rules, restrictions, limitations and provisions, shall form and be fundamental articles of the constitution of the said corporation. 1. The number of votes to which each stockholder, except the state, shall be entitled, shall be according to the number of shares he shall hold, in the proportion following, that is to say, for one share and not more than two shares, one vote for each share; for every two shares above two and not exceeding ten, one vote; for every four shares above ten and not exceeding thirty, one vote; for every six shares above thirty and not exceeding sixty, one vote; for every eight shares above sixty and not exceeding a hundred, one vote; but no person, copartnership or body politic, except the state, shall be entitled in his or their own right, or as proxy, to a greater number than thirty votes; and after the first election, no share or shares shall confer a right of suffrage, which shall not have been held ten calendar months previous to the day of election. All stockholders may vote in elections, or on any other question touching the Bank, by proxy; provided, the proxy be derived directly from such stockholder, and voted on by a person being a citizen of the state.— 2. Not more than nine of the Directors elected by the stockholders, and actually in office, exclusive of the President, shall be eligible for the next succeeding year, but the Director who shall be President at the time of an election, may always be re-elected. 3. None but a stockholder being a citizen of the state of Virginia, except the Treasurer, shall be eligible as a director. No director of any other bank, shall at the same time be a director of this bank; nor shall the Governor, any member of the Executive, Council, Auditor, Register, Attorney General, Judges of the Superior courts, or any person holding and exercising any office of trust or profit under the United States be a director of this Bank. 4. No director shall be entitled to any emolument unless the same shall have been allowed by the stockholders at a general meeting.— The stockholders shall make such compensation to the President for extraordinary services at the bank as shall appear to them reasonable. 5. Not less than nine directors shall constitute a board, for the transaction of business; of whom the President shall always be one, except in case of sickness or necessary absence, in which case his place may be supplied by any other director whom he by writing shall nominate for that purpose. 6. A number of stockholders not less than sixty, who together shall be proprietors of three hundred shares, or upwards, shall have power at any time to call a general meeting of the stockholders for the purposes relative to the institution, giving at least six weeks notice in two public gazettes of the place where the bank is kept, and specifying in such notice, the object or objects of such meeting. 7. Every Cashier or Treasurer, before he enters on the duties of his office, shall be requested to give bond with two or more securities, to the satisfaction of the directors in a sum not less than fifty thousand dollars, with condition for his good behaviour.— 8. The lands, tenements and hereditaments, which it shall be lawful for the said corporation to hold, shall be only such as shall be requisite for its immediate accommodation in relation to the convenient transacting of its business, and such as shall have been bona fide mortgaged to it by way of security, or conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings, or purchased at sales upon judgments which shall have been obtained for such debts. 9. ments of the amount of the capital stock of the said corporation, and of the debts due to the same; of the monies deposited therein; of the notes in circulation, and of the cash in hand; and shall have a right to inspect such general accounts in the books of the bank, as shall relate to the said statement; provided, That this shall not be constructed to imply a right of inspecting the account of any private individual or individuals, or any body politic or corporate, with the bank.
17. The directors shall keep fair and regular entries, in a book to be provided for that purpose, of their proceedings; and on any question, where two directors shall require it, the yeas and nays of the directors voting, shall be duly inserted on their minutes, and those minutes be at all times, on demand, produced to the stockholders when at a general meeting, or to the legislature, or any committee thereof, who shall be authorised thereby to require the same. 18. No president or cashier of this bank shall be directly or indirectly concerned in the purchase or sale of any of the public stock or funds, under the penalty of ten thousand dollars, to be forfeited, one half thereof to the use of the state, and the other half to the informers, nor shall the cashier be allowed to carry on any other business than that of the bank under the penalty of five thousand dollars. 19.
A fair and correct list of the stockholders shall be hung up at least one month before any election of directors, in the common Hall of the said bank, to the end that public information may be given to the parties of their co-proprietors and stockholders.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That if the said corporation, or any person or persons, for, or to the use of the same, shall deal or trade in buying or selling any goods, wares, merchandise or commodities whatsoever, contrary to the provisions of this act, all and every person or persons, who shall have given any order or direction for so dealing or trading, and all and every person or persons, who shall have been concerned as parties or agents therein, shall forfeit and lose treble the value of goods, wares, merchandise and commodities, in which such dealing and trade shall have been, one half thereof to the use of the informer, and the other half thereof to the use of the state, to be recovered with cost of suit.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That the bill or notes of the said corporation, originally made payable, or which shall have become payable on demand, in gold or silver coin, shall be receivable in all payments to the state of Virginia —and the public monies of the state, shall be constantly deposited in the bank of Virginia, whenever lying inactive.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That within the term of one month after information given by the proper commissioners, at the city of Richmond, that a sufficient number of shares have been subscribed for, to commence the operations of the Bank, the executive shall on behalf and for the use of this state, make or cause to be made a subscription to the capital stock of the said bank, to the amount of three hundred thousand dollars, which said sum of three hundred thousand dollars, shall be loaned to the state by the said bank of Virginia, at the rate of interest not exceeding four per cent per annum.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, That the said sum of money herein before directed to be borrowed of the bank, shall be payable and paid in ten equal annual instalments, the first whereof shall be on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and five, or in any greater sum or sums of money, or shorter period or periods or at the pleasure of the commonwealth, and interest shall cease to be chargeable on the amount of each and every payment from the time of making the same respectively; and all the money arising from the taxes on merchant's licences, shall be and is hereby exclusively appropriated to and for the payment of the said loans, thereupon respectively accruing, according to the instalments aforesaid, and the dividend to which the commonwealth shall be entitled; and if the monies so appropriated shall not be adequate to the payment of the said loans, and the interest thereon, respectively, then as many of the shares in the said bank, belonging to this state as may be necessary to supply the deficiency, shall be sold and applied to and for that purpose.

Sec. 13. And be it further enacted, That the said President and Directors shall not in any case issue any note for a smaller sum than five dollars.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, That, no note shall be negotiable at the bank, unless it be so expressed on the face of said note.

Sec. 15. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners appointed by this act, for the receiving subscriptions in the city of Richmond, shall immediately after a sufficient number of shares are taken, provide a house for the carrying on the business of the bank, together with all necessary papers, stationery, vaults and utensils suitable to the same, so that as soon as the directors are chosen, the operations of the bank may be immediately and without loss of time prosecuted and carried into effect.

Received at Boston on the 28th ult. from Liverpool. London dates to the 28th of November.

LONDON, November 22.
His Britannic Majesty's Speech to both houses of Parliament.
About three o'clock, his majesty proceeded in his usual state, to the House of Lords, to open the session, and being seated on the throne, a message was dispatched to the House of commons, to intimate his majesty's presence in the house of peers, and to require their immediate attendance at the bar of the house. The commons being come, his majesty made the following most gracious speech:
"My Lords and Gentlemen,
"Since I last met you in Parliament it has been my chief object to carry into effect those measures which your wisdom had adopted for the defence of the United Kingdom, and for the vigorous prosecution of the war. In these preparations I have been seconded by the voluntary exertions of all ranks of my people, in a manner that has, if possible, strengthened their claims to my confidence and affection—they have proved that the menaces of the enemy have served to rouse their native and heri-ditary spirit; and that all other considerations are lost in a general disposition to make those efforts and sacrifices which the honor and safety of the kingdom demanded at this important and critical conjuncture.
"Though my attention has principally been directed to the great object of internal security, no opportunity has been lost of making an impression on the foreign possessions of the enemy. The islands of St. Lucia, of Tobago, of St. Pierre and Miquelon, and the settlements of Demerara and Essequibo, have surrendered to the British arms. In the conduct of the operations, by which those valuable acquisitions have been made, the utmost promptitude and zeal have been displayed by the officers employed on those services, and by my forces acting under their command, by sea and land.
"In Ireland, the leaders, and several inferior agents, in the late traitorous and atrocious conspiracy have been brought to justice; and the public tranquility has experienced no further interruption. I indulge the hope, that such of my deluded subjects as have swerved from their allegiance are now convinced of their error; and that, having compared the advantages they derive from the protection of a free constitution, with the condition of those countries which are under the dominion of the French Government, they will cordially & zealously concur in resisting any attempt that may be made against the security and independence of the United Kingdom.
"Gentlemen of the House of Commons, "I have a perfect reliance on your public spirit for making such provisions, as may be necessary for the service of the year. The progressive improvement of the revenue cannot fail to encourage you to persevere in the system which has been adopted, of detraying the expenses of the war, with as little addition as possible to the public debt, and the permanent burthens of the state.
"I lament the heavy pressure, which, under the present circumstances, must unavoidably be experienced by my people; but I am persuaded that they will meet it with the good sense and fortitude which so eminently distinguishes their character under the conviction of the indispensable importance of upholding the dignity, and providing effectually for the safety of the Empire.
"My Lords and Gentlemen,
"I have concluded a Convention with the King of Sweden, for the purpose of adjusting all differences which have arisen on the subject of the eleventh article of the treaty of 1661. I have directed that a copy of this convention should be laid before you; and you will, I trust, be of opinion that the arrangement, whilst it upholds our maritime rights, is founded on those principles of reciprocal advantage which are best calculated to maintain and improve the good understanding which happily subsists between the two countries.
"In the prosecution of the contest in which we are engaged, it shall be as it has ever been, my first object to execute as becomes me, the great trust committed to my charge. Embarked with my brave and loyal people in one common cause, it is my fixed determination, if the occasion should arise, to share their exertions and their dangers in the defence of our constitution, our religion, our laws and our independence. To the activity and valor of my fleets and armies to the zeal and unconquerable spirit of my faithful subjects, I confide the honor of my crown and all those valuable interests which are involved in the issue of this momentous contest.
"Actuated by these sentiments, and humbly imploping the blessings of divine providence, I look forward with a firm conviction, that if, contrary to all just expectation, the enemy should elude the vigilance of my numerous fleets and cruizers, and attempt to execute those presumptuous threat of invading our coasts, the consequences will be to them discom-fure, confusion, and disgrace; and that ours will not only be the glory of surmounting present difficulties, and repelling immediate danger, but the solid and permanent advantage of fixing the safety and independence of the kingdom on the basis of acknowledged strength; the result of its own tried energy and resources."

ELEGANT EDITION
The HOLY BIBLE.
PROPOSALS
For Printing by Subscription, (in four handsome octavo volumes)
CONTAINING
The Old and New Testaments.

CONDITIONS.
It shall be printed on a superfine wove paper, with an elegant new type.
The price to subscribers will be Two Dollars per vol. in boards, or Two Dollars and Fifty Cents, handsomely bound and lettered.
To those who subscribe for several copies, a discount will be made, proportioned to the number subscribed for.

THE advantage of having this valuable Book printed on a large type, and, at the same time, in portable and convenient volumes, appears so evident, that the encouragement necessary to warrant an undertaking of such magnitude, is considerably excited; a portable volume would often be taken up, in a moment of leisure, when the size of a large, unwieldy folio, would operate as an apology for leaving it unopened; in this way, small portions of time would be profitably employed, which might otherwise be totally lost. In large families a Bible in volumes, affording an opportunity for several to read at once, may sometimes be peculiarly convenient: it seems superfluous to add much on this subject—suffice it to say, that no reasonable expense or pains shall be spared, to render this edition of the Holy Scriptures both correct and elegant.

The above work is in press, and will be finished about the end of the present year.

Subscriptions received by R. and J. Gray, King street, where a specimen of the paper and printing may be seen.

I will Rent,
For one year on moderate terms, and give immediate possession,
HOUSES and LOTS, in the town of Dumfries, adjoining the court house, and lately occupied by captain George Williams, as a tavern. The terms will be made known on application to Mr. William Smith, of Dumfries, or the subscriber.

The above property will be sold to the highest bidder, on a credit of one, two, and three years, at Prince William court house, on the 5th day of March next, being court day. A clear and indisputable title will be made to the purchaser, or purchasers, on the day of sale; he or they giving bonds with approved security, to bear interest from the date if not punctually paid.

A minute description of this property is deemed unnecessary, as it is presumed those inclined to rent or purchase, will first view the premises.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

Eloped from Dumfries Virginia, on Saturday the 27th ult. a negro man who call himself Joseph O'Barwell, usually known by the name of Joe; complexion dark brown; person slender, and rather handsome; walks erect, about 30 years of age; five feet eight to nine inches high, has the mark of sores on his legs, of a specious engaging address, is artful and very dishonest, and will assuredly rob whoever may be so unfortunate as to employ him. His cloaths not known, but has a pair of half boots nearly new, very sharp pointed at the toes, and is in the practice of dressing gay; he has money, and will no doubt procure a pass; he was long a waiter in Dumfries Tavern, and is well known to travellers this way. The above reward of 50 dollars will be paid for securing said Joe in Dumfries or Alexandria jail, and 20 dollars will be paid for securing him in any jail in the United States.
It is supposed he is gone for Boston and will endeavour to get a passage by water from Baltimore or Philadelphia. Those secreting or assisting said runaway, will be prosecuted to the utmost severity of the law.

To Rent,

For one or more years, that valuable DISTILLERY and MILL,

Late the Property of General George Wash- ington of Mount Vernon, situated on a navigable creek within nine miles of Alexandria.

This Distillery has five large Stills and a Boiler erected upon the late improved plan, with sheds for raising and fattening Hogs, also stalls for thirty Beesves.

In point of situation none can exceed it, the easy access to Maryland, will always ensure the greatest abundance of grain for carrying on the distilling business in its most extensive scale, independent of its own neighbourhood, which has always been able to supply it. The mill will require some repairs, which will be done at the proprietor's expense; she has manufactured large quantities of Flour, and may easily be made to do it again: To this mill is a cooper's shop, and a comfortable dwelling house. Application to be made to the subscriber, near the spot.

STOUGHTON'S

GENUINE BITTERS,

Faithfully prepared at the original workhouse London.

TO make any observations here, upon the superior quality of these Bitters, to any ever offered for sale, is needless; suffice it to say, that they have stood the test of approbation a great number of years.

Gentlemen, who prefer bitters, will find them an elegant and wholesome preparation; and now for the first time, imported in quart bottles, well as vials, which will reduce the price nearly one half.

Country stores and taverns supplied by the dozen or groce, with a very large allowance on the price, or bartered for country produce, on application to Messrs. Robert and John Gray, boot-seilers, Alexandria.
